

Solihull School Pledges – 30 November 2017

School	Pledges
CTC Kingshurst Academy	Transport: Stroll n Roll involving House Captains. Also Bikeability, with PE teachers, switches and headteacher	Energy: Energy Walkabout with P16s, Year 7s and teachers. Also interested in Meter Reader workshop	Waste: Recycled Art with P16s and Art Department	Fair Trade: Fair Trade survey and Fair Trade Bake Off. This would involve cooking staff.	Biodiversity: Hedgehog Survey
Grace Academy	Waste: Create an art piece using recycled goods, with help of the Art Department	Fair Trade: Fair Trade Survey involving everyone as a tutor activity	Energy: Energy Walkabout involving everyone
John Henry Newman Catholic College	Energy: Saving energy	Transport: Bikeability	Fair Trade: Divine Chocolate Poetry / Art Competition	Fair Trade: Becoming a Fair Trade school
Lode Heath School	Waste: Students want to create an art piece using recycled goods and will ask their Art Department for help (Ms Pearce, Mr Everson, D&T)	Fair Trade: They want to involve Catering in their Fair Trade Bake Off. Also to do the Fair Aware Award with Mr Wilson (Head) and School Council	Energy: Have pledged to save energy at school. For this they will involve the ICT Department.	Fair Trade: Divine Chocolate Poetry Competition with help of English teachers (Ms Chowdhury, Ms Semlar)
Park Hall Academy	Fair Trade: Students want to be involved in the Fair Trade Bake Off and will ask their food teachers for help.	Waste: They have also pledged to do Recycled Art with Love Solihull and will involve Art Department / those in charge of school grounds	Biodiversity: They also want to do a Hedgehog Campaign involving the nature reservists.	Energy: Fourth on their list is a Meter Reader workshop, involving all families. Another group was interested in Switch & Save campaign to involve the Head / Year Head.	Transport: Stroll n Roll was another pledge involving PE Teachers
St Peter's Catholic School	Transport: Students pledged to walk or ride a bike to school and will involve form tutors and Head of Years. Also to be introduce Bikeability Fix.	Fair Trade: One group wanted to do the FT Bake Off. Another pledged to ask the school Caretakers to help in saving energy, and the Dinner ladies and financial negotiator to help in buying fairtrade ingredients.	Waste: Pledge is to keep their school clear, involving all of the students and teachers. Also to carry out a litter campaign – Bin it Your Way using art on bins	Fair Trade: Divine Chocolate Poetry Competition which involves more poetry and gets more people involved	